

Caux Dialogue on Land and Security 2014 “Mitigating Risk; Responding to Threat”

Caux, Switzerland, 30 June - 4 July 2014

Programme and Room Numbers

TIME	SESSION	ROOM
Monday, 30 June	Opening
14h00 - 16h00	Registration opens
16h00	Tea
16h45 - 17h15	Welcome Addresses: Martin Frick , Chair Initiatives for Land, Lives and Peace Steering Group (moderator) Edward Peters , Executive Vice President, IofC International	Main Hall
17h15 - 17h45	Keynote: Jamie Shea , Deputy Assistant Secretary General for new security challenges
17h45 - 18h00	Response Luc Gnacadja , Former Executive Secretary UNCCD
18h30 - 20h00	Dinner
20h30	Conference briefing	Main Hall
Tuesday, 1 July	Analyzing risks – The geopolitics of land degradation Land degradation can lead to insecurity and instability. Where are current and future geographical hotspots, how do risks converge? To what extent can land restoration improve security, development and climate change mitigation?
07h30	Morning Reflection, led by Pastor James Wuye, Nigeria	Bay Window
08h00	Breakfast
09h00	Dialogue Groups
10h15	Morning plenary Keynote: Ambassador Laura Thompson , Deputy Director General, International Organization of Migration	Main Hall

10h35	Panel discussion: Luc Gnacadja, Former Executive Secretary, UNCCD Ambassador Laura Thompson, Deputy Director General, International Organization of Migration Hans Herren, President, Millenium Institute William Dar, Director General, International Crop Research for Semi-Arid Tropics Mathew Tuitoek, Deputy Governor of Baringo, Kenya Hanspeter Liniger, World Overview of Conservation Approaches and Technologies Moderator: Martin Frick, Chair Initiatives for Land, Lives and Peace, Steering Group	Main Hall
12h30	Lunch
15h00 – 16h00	Parallel workshops I
	Workshop 1 Rainwater Harvesting for Land, Lives and Peace Franz Kohler, Vessela Monta, International Rainwater Harvesting Alliance	Room 400
	Workshop 2 Case study Baringo County, Kenya Joseph Karanja, Kenya	Room 300D
	Workshop 3 Land restoration as a response to the current situation in drylands, with particular reference to Farmer Managed Natural Regeneration Tim Morris, World Vision Australia	Room 300E
16h45 – 18h00	Parallel workshops II
	Workshop 1 Monitoring desertification Noel Oettle and Patrice Burger, Drynet Network	Room 300D
	Workshop 2 Large scale land restoration in North Korea Team from PIINTEC, D.P.R. Korea	Room 400
	Workshop 3 The economics of land restoration Mark Schauer and Hannes Etter, ELD-Initiative	Room 300E
18h30	Dinner
20h30	Evening Programme Launch of “Chad – a path towards hope”, a new film featuring the reconciliation work of Imam Mohammad Ashafa and Pastor James Wuye. Directed by Alan Channer, funded by UNDP and the European Union. Abderamane Gossoumian, national coordinator of the committee to follow up the call to peace and reconciliation, Chad will also be present.	Main Hall

Wednesday, 2 JulyPositive scenarios – investing in land

What do possible solutions look like? Where and how are they being modeled? How are human barriers being overcome? Experience to-date of scaling up land restoration successes.

07h30	Morning Reflection, led by Cornelio Sommaruga	Bay Window
08h00	Breakfast
09h00	Dialogue Groups
10h15	Morning Plenary: Keynote: Ian Johnson , President, Club of Rome	Main Hall
10h35	Panel discussion Violaine Berger , Head of Ecosystem Projects, WBCSD World Business Council for Sustainable Development Juan Gonzalez-Valero , Syngenta Stephen Hinton , Water and Food Award Nick Beglinger , Swisscleantech Ignacio Campino , Desertec Foundation Leon Isaacs , Developing Markets Associates, London Moderator: Martin Frick , Chair, Initiatives for Land, Lives and Peace	Main Hall
12h30	Lunch
15h00-16h00	Parallel Workshops I
	Workshop 1 Food production potential in the drylands Suhas Wani , International Crop Research Institute For the Semi-Arid Tropics	Room 300E
	Workshop 2 Soil leadership academy Juan Gonzalez-Valero , Syngenta Louise Baker , UNCCD	Room 400
	Workshop 3 Peace through development in Galkayo, Somalia Dr. Hashi Osman Mohamed and Hassan Mohamud , Somalia	Room 300D
16h45- 18h00	Parallel workshops II
	Workshop 1 Innovative approaches to combat land degradation – the case of sustainable energy wood supply scheme in Madagascar Mark Schauer , ELD Initiative Christian Andriamanantsheheno , ECO-Consultant, GIZ	Room 400
	Workshop 2 Trees as a means to land regeneration in West Africa Philip Goodwin , CEO, Tree aid	Room 300E
	Workshop 3 Flood prevention and disaster mitigation by combatting land degradation with integrated natural systems strategy in Wadi Hadramaut. Yemen Rhamis Kent , Permaculture Research Institute & Permaculture Sustainable Consulting Pty. Ltd.	Room 300D
18h30	Dinner
20h30	Evening programme Initiatives Fair: A marketplace for ideas and action	Main Hall

Thursday, 3 July	Responding – Under what conditions can massive scaling up of solutions be achieved? What can we do to help bring these conditions about?
07h30	Morning Reflection, led by TBA	Bay Window
08h00	Breakfast
09h00	Dialogue groups
	Morning plenary:	Main Hall
10h15	Keynote: Christopher Briggs , Secretary General, Ramsar Convention on Wetlands
10h35	Panel discussion:	Main Hall
	Peter Van der Auweraert , Head Property, Land, Reparation Division, International Organization for Migration Brendan Bromwich , United Nations Environmental Programme Coordinator in Sudan Adam Koniuszewski , COO Green Cross International Muhammad Swazuri , Chair, Kenya National Land Commission Jakob Rhyner , Vice-Rector, United Nations University Cyriaque Sendashonga , Head of Policy, International Union for Conservation of Nature
	Moderator: Ian Johnson , President, Club of Rome
12h30	Lunch
15h00 – 16h00	Parallel Workshops I
	Workshop 1 Adaption, loss and damage, migration Dina Ionesco , International Organization for Migration Jakob Rhyner , United Nations University	Room 300D
	Workshop 2 Rural roads – the sinner or savior of land degradation? Simon Maddrell , CEO Excellent Development	Room 300E
	Workshop 3 Agroforestry and the lemon problem, or why sometimes a used car is a bargain Patrick Worms , World Agroforestry Centre	Room 400
16h45– 18h00	Parallel Workshops II
	Workshop 1 The impact of land degradation and climate change on international security Hartmut Behrend , German Army	Room 300D
	Workshop 2 Assessing the conditions for border-to-border restoration: Rwanda’s response to the Bonn Challenge Stewart Maginnis , International Union for Conservation of Nature	Room 400
	Workshop 3 Title will be announced Hanspeter Liniger , World Overview of Conservation Approaches and Technologies	Room 300E

18h30	Dinner
20h30	Evening programme 2050: Hopes and Realities – A fireside conversation with Julia Marton-Lefèvre, Ian Johnson and young participants	Bay Window
Friday, 4 July	2015 - Goals and milestones Defining the way ahead
07h030	Morning Reflection, led by TBA	Bay Window
08h00	Breakfast
09h30	Closing plenary Keynotes: Monique Barbut , Executive Secretary, UNCCD Julia Marton-Lefèvre , Director General, IUCN Panelists: Monique Barbut , Executive Secretary, UNCCD Julia Marton-Lefèvre , Director General, IUCN Ian Johnson , President, Club of Rome Moderator: Martin Frick , Chair, Initiatives for Land, Lives and Peace	Main Hall

For the biographies of our speakers, please refer to our website www.landlivespeace.org